FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Growing Trend of Self Employed Can Spell Big Trouble with IRS in Months to Come Clearwater Firm Offers Support to Newly Self Employed to Head Off Tax Problems

Clearwater, FL – Fredrick James Accounting, Tax & Consulting, a locally owned and operated firm, announced a new orientation consultation service for those newly self employed or considering starting their own home or small business as a Sole Proprietor. The one hour, personalized consultation provides vital information to help Sole Proprietors avoid making common tax mistakes that can lead to unexpected tax problems in the future. Consultations are done in person at the Clearwater office, over the phone or via web meeting. The cost is $147 and offers a money back guarantee.

Founder and CEO, Fred Daus is personally providing the consultation service in response to an increasing trend of new entrepreneurs finding themselves in trouble with the IRS. “I started this firm in 1999, working out of my home office like most new business’s.” says Mr. Daus “I know how tough it is to wear all of the business hats on a daily basis, it can be overwhelming and it’s easy to forget about things that don’t affect you right away, like taxes.” His goal is to offer new entrepreneurs the tools they need to build a successful business that contributes to a growing local and National economy rather than becoming another statistic.

The one hour orientation consultation addresses questions such as: What is and what isn’t deductible? How much should I set aside for taxes, Medicare & Social Security? Do I have to pay State Taxes? Do I need to collect Sales Tax? Do I have to make quarterly payments? Do I qualify for the mileage deduction? What can I do to reduce my tax liability? Participants have the opportunity to ask any questions they may have and receive information tailored to their specific situation.

Those interested in scheduling their one on one consultation with Mr. Daus may do so by calling 727-474-0922 or on line at www.FredRickJames.com/self_employment_tax_consultation.html.
